Yörük Ali Efe (1895-1951)

Kuva-yi Milliye Commander Yörük Ali Efe was born in 1895 in the Kavaklı Village of the Sultanhisar District of Aydın Province. In his will, he requested to be buried in Yenipazar and stated that "Its people are benevolent, they love earth, those who love earth love human beings. I will feel comfortable there."

The tomb of Yörük Ali Efe at the Muslukuyu Cemetery was moved to the museum garden by the decision of the Council of Ministers. Yörük Ali Efe's belongings, photographs and other ethnographic objects of the War of Independence are exhibited in the museum. His response to the praise for his role in the War of Independence will always be remembered. "Some people attribute most of the work done in wartime to me and others. This is wrong. What is the importance of one person, five people in such big cases? Every patriot who has a love of motherland in his heart thought and heard like us in those days and then he was with us. There is a mistake in awarding the lion's share to oneself in National struggle. What is the sound of one hand clapping?" This valued commander of Kuvâ-yi Milliye was awarded with the medal of independence by the Turkish Grand National Assembly.

The Efe Of All Efes Yörük Ali
Have you passed from the Dalaman,
Have you drank from its coldest
waters,
Out of all the Efes,
Have you found Yörük Ali?
O efe's efe, the efe...
The efe of all efes
That Dalaman's fountain
How sweet it is to drink from,
But if you ask about Yörük Ali,
He is the chosen efe
O efe's efe, the efe...
The efe of all efes
The sleeves of my cepken (Efe jacket)
It is shining with its little puls,
Yörük Ali is coming!
Clear all, of Aydın's roads!
O efe's efe, the efe...
The efe of all efes
